

MAXIMUMROCKNROLL AND THE AMOEBA COLLECTIVE PRESENT:

OH SHIT IT'S THE 2002

BOOK YOUR OWN FUCKING LIFE!

A DO IT YOURSELF PUNK/HARDCORE RESOURCE GUIDE

NUMBER 10 • $4.00

After last year's novel-sized guide, we knew this year we'd either have to provide a complimentary magnifying glass with each issue, or print fewer listings. The magnifying glass option was more than we could afford.

So this year, you can thumb through page of distributors, labels, promoters/venues, radio stations, zines, and all kinds of other things. The band listings were just too humongous to print. Last year we were going to dump the band listings entirely, but the response from you guys convinced us to continue their web existence. You can search and browse the band listings (as well as all of the other listings) any time of the year at <http://www.byofl.org>.

If I'm able to, uhh, "borrow" the necessary software, you'll find a nicely formatted PDF file of the band listings on the web site that you can download and print. Grab a manila folder, doodle on the front and back, stick the pages inside, and you've got BYOFL 2002, Volume 2!

Don't forget to visit the web site in January 2003 so you can update your listing(s). Each February we dump all listings dated before May 1st of the previous year (but it could change to June 1st or July 1st, you just never know). All the up-to-date details on due dates and stuff will be available in MRR and on the BYOFL web site during the latter part of this year.

As a last note, I'd like to heartily welcome the new volunteers that have taken over maintenance of the online listings: Breeze (bands), Affective (distros and labels), CryClown (promoters, radio stations, and stores), and Amanda Flash (zines and miscellaneous). I finally get a weekend away from my computer!!

Equalizing X Distort is the only radio show in Toronto that dedicates itself to the underground hardcore punk scene. We air every Sunday from 10:00 pm til midnight. There is a particular emphasis on international releases in the developing thrash, power violence, sXe, d-beat, burning spirits, and Killed By Death scenes, which means we play material like Jellyroll Rockheads, Recension, Backstabbers Inc., Asterick*, NK6, and Svart Sno. There is a weekly demo feature (paying homage to the cassette format), weekly event listings, and a monthly top 10 retrospective look at releases. Accept: vinyl, CD, cassette.

The Toilet, Inc., Huntsville, AL. staff@thetoiletonline, www.thetoiletonline.com

The purpose of the site is to create a safe haven for open-minded individuals to come to and share their humor with that of the original staff and crew that used to work on the publication. The site is based upon the writings, artwork, and ideas of a local school magazine that went by the same name and was created back in 1997. During that time period, the creators felt that people needed to be able to take a look at the world in a 'different light'. This website has collected much of the writings and ideas from the now expired magazine, as well as given a strong emphasis on giving other people a chance to write in their own stories, articles, poetry, limericks, reviews, etc.

I'm starting a zine to support and promote artists of any sort music, art, poetry, essays, etc. I am searching for people not only in Arizona but anywhere to submit and have their voices heard. We are looking for a smorgasboard of politics, and views to eradicate ignorance of all kinds and promote awareness of the misconceptions of every day life. This is not a politically correct standpoint but the views of anyone who wants to contribute.

Luke Wingfield Dickinson, 1011 Hillcrest, Flagstaff, AZ 86004. sergeantboy@aol.com 3$ sorry/bunch stapled 8.5x11/about 5 a year. What do I need to help me calm down, is what I asked myself one time. I went on and epic journey that day. I once tried to wear unusual clothes, but my mom was upset and consequently I decided to stop. I once tried to make art, but my dog kept eating it. I even tried to hate my parents as much as I sometimes think they hate me. But I just couldn't do it. I really want to be a good person for people, and also for myself. I want to participate. This is why I am writing a zine. and I truly hope that someone out there likes it.

Have come to realize that limiting fresh new working bands to a 21 and over venue is not fair to anyone involved. From this point on our main goal is to get the music to all the people. Think about it, the kids are the ones that will be around when it all comes around. We have a lot of local draw bands and a active scene here. Ventura is a great town to make connections and get some real exposure. Gas $$ usually not a problem. Lodging: maybe. Food: maybe.

The venue that I book shows can hold up to 300 kids or more I'm sure of it. So having enough room for kids is not a hassle. I don't really like to do guarantees but if its reasonable then I'm sure we can work something out. Basically I promote shows through the Archangel Collective and I donate some cash to that from shows but paying the bands that play here are my top priority. And you will love Madison Indiana trust me. Lodging: maybe. Food: maybe.

Our percentage is on a break-even basis, and every dollar we make over our costs will be split up between the bands playing. We are not in this for the money, we just want to help make Indy a cooler place to live. Just get in touch at least a month in advance, mail us a demo, and we'll try to get something set up for you! At Pug Life Productions, we have a dream. This "dream" consists of an existence of good local bands playing shows with good-sized crowd. This "dream" has a high-profile national band coming through town playing at one of the local clubs at least twice a month. This "dream" is called a "scene", and right now it is something that Indianapolis, and possibly all of Indiana, just does not have. The purpose of Pug Life Productions is to help make this dream a reality, and book national acts for your viewing pleasure (and exposure for your band), get people to the local shows, and just do whatever we can to make the local (non-existent) scene prosper. Still booking shows. Going on 4 years now. Prefer punk, hXc, thrash, youth crew, new wave esque etc. No nimrods. No pseudo indie major bands. No pop punk or bands that say they sound like Hot Water Music, etc. No booking agents!!! No guarantees. No bullshit. Thank you! Since I work alot I cannot guarantee everyone a show but I will try to help if I think it's worthwhile. If it's not it gets deleted. Variety of venues available. Excellent skills. Guaranteed people will know about the show. This doesn't mean they will automatically come in droves. I have worked with all sorts of bands & generally have good to great turnouts. Anything else? KWAME SHORTER/ THE SPACE

224 Burr Oak St, Kalamazoo, MI 49001. 616-343-7828, kwameman@hotmail.com
I used to book music for Eleven-Eleven (the basement of a house I lived at) in Kalamazoo, but since its unfortunate demise I'm now working for The Space. A group effort in Kalamazoo's arts and music development. It also serves as a coffeehouse. I'm not sure about the hall capacity right now. It should be around 50-100 (just a guesstimation). I, also, don't know how much we can guarantee, but if you talk to me right I'm positive there's a compromise that we can make, if you're honest and give us enough time to promote the occasion. Lodging: maybe. Food: maybe.

If you give us the chance we'll get you a show. Oh, yeah we do it for free too, don't worry about that. Lodging: maybe. Food: maybe.

We are a DIY house in St. Cloud MN. With current venue problems in town we are one of the only places for independent music. We can comfortably hold about 35 people in our basement. We have a very good PA. We can only guarantee gas money, all shows are all-ages, totally DIY, absolutely no drugs and no drinking at our shows. We are mostly looking to book Ebullition style hardcore and harder edged indie stuff, screamo is always welcome. If you don't fit in these categories, send us a demo and if we like it we'll see what we can do. All touring bands will get paid before local bands. Lodging: yes. Food: maybe.

7TH STREET HOUSE

Rich Gill/Lisa Finley, 509 7th St SE, Rochester, MN 55904. 507-252-8543, badoskar@hotmail.com

GHETTO STOOP BOOKING

Justin, 903 18th St S, Apt 4, Moorhead, MN 56560. 218-236-1083, francisj@mnstate.edu
Will book shows in Fargo/Moorhead. Shows usually draw anywhere from 60-150 people. I'm not picky about styles, as long as you're not racist, homophobic, sexist, intolerant, a complete dick, etc etc. Only serious requests, please! Just a fair warning, if you don't send a demo, you probably won't get a show. I just get too many requests to deal with them blindly. If you have a mullet, leave me alone. If you're a cover band, call a bar. Lodging: maybe. Food: maybe.

HELLSIDE BOOKING AND PROMOTIONS

Good place to stop off between Minneapolis and the west. No guarantees, but can work with %'s. Various venues ranging from smaller to about 900 capacity. 21 and up as well as all ages. The locals are pretty good about putting up travelling bands and taking care of them. Duluth tends to be an overlooked city and as a result the people are starved for entertainment. Lodging: maybe. If you are traveling to Minneapolis and have no contacts or place to sleep, contact me for a temporary place to crash. If I am travelling at the time, I can hook you up with addresses of friends of mine that would be glad to help out. Also keep in mind that the winters are shit cold, everybody tends to be slightly depressed, and there are not as many punk gigs. Summers are best, lots of activities and friendlier company.

ADVENTURE THEATRE

Ginger, PO Box 4244, Cleveland, MS 38732. 662-846-9052, clevekid@hotmail.com, www.angelfire.com/ms/pjdiablo

Touring bands always get at least $50 bucks, probably more, plus food and lodging. Styles we usually avoid: oi, rockabilly, ska, goth, gg-allin-act-alikes, mean people, serious rock stars. Joking rock stars ok. Otherwise we are open. Puppet shows, plays, workshops, etc are good. Weekends only! Most bands who come through say we are their favorite place to play. Turnout is good for all shows. Probably the most reliable venue in MS. Email preferably before calling. I'll give my house for a band full of friendly people with something interesting to say. Lodging: yes. Food: yes.

Craig, 136 Brinkerhoff St, Plattsburgh, NY 12901. 518-562-5054, uwszine@hotmail.com
I moved from Long Island, so I pretty much have stopped booking there. I live in Plattsburgh, NY now- it's about an hour from Burlington, VT and about an hour and ten minutes from Montreal. I will book shows for DIY bands with a message, who aren't stupid. To clarify, this means that if you call women 'bitches' in your songs, talk about how the PC militias are coming to get you, think rape is a funny subject, or think you wrote the perfect song for the jocks to 'mosh it up to', I'm probably not the person you want to get in touch with. On the other hand, if you're not a sexist/racist/homophobic jock loving band, I can book an awesome DIY show, feed you and give you a place to stay. Lyrics required before I will book a show.

We wish to make a work-zine out of contributions from people who have any experience going door to door night after night in the summer for the benefit of large non-profit agencies. Please submit essays, prose, poems, comic strips, etc, about your personal fundraising adventures by May 1st (May Day!) for our zine which will be coming out early summer. We seek mainly to expose the inherent alienating/exploitative/automated nature of this "non-profit" job which we have found to be an eerily common experience among the 17-mid 20's age group; but we are also willing to be challenged on this negative stance by anyone's report of a positive canvassing experience.

No set prices; depends on work/time needed to complete. Open to all types of musical styles and experimentation. I'm 23 so I have a better grasp of sound for certain projects, beats bitter-ole-mullet-engineers we all get stuck with. Gear is portable but limited but I do have access to studios that may accommodate a larger scale project. Currently a 24track PCProTools LE system. Wanna rock out a pretty good demo for cheap and in good time? I'm-d-best. Please! cannot express enough....I cannot shine shit so be well rehearsed. Do not expect a Papa Roach/or the such sounding recording in the end. Practice tape is preferred = ideas for what I'd need and like to do. Good times low prices....will always put forth my best.

Real art created by yours truly, an old-school punk who knows. Keeping alive the mail-art/marginalist tradition of Gerry Reith and Ray Johnson, and the crank-'em-out vulgosity of Pablo Picasso. Favorite subjects: human oddities, weird music, weird films, crypto-religious insanity, you get the idea. Exhibited in many fine and not-so-fine spaces. I can do album covers and personal works of art. Send $5.00 or trade for samples of what I've done. No racists, no sexists, no homophobes, no heterophobes, and no mean people in general. Issue 18 is finally available, and features all of the short stories you have come to love, along with guest columns by Nato Disgusting, and many others, interviews with Dillinger Four, and The Figgs, and plus I've shrunk the type down, so you can now get four dollars worth of reading for 75c or $1ppd. All back issues are sold out, but I might do a reprint type dingus, or something cool, along those lines. I put out a new issue every six months or so, so watch out.

Toxic Promotions has been involved in putting on gigs for the past 10 years mainly punk/hardcore/ska. At the moment I'm running a venue in Dublin called The Temple which accomodates approx 170+. I also hire out the Music Centre which holds 650+ for any of the bigger bands that come over from England or the states. I always guarantee a band whatever they are looking for. If I can't accomodate a band in my own house then I will book them a b+b. I'm in contact with other promoters in north and south of Ireland as we work together to get a touring band 3 or 4 gigs when they come to Ireland. Lodging: yes. Food: yes.

DOA - AN AUSTRALIAN MANIC STREET PREACHERS ZINE

Sam. red_dragon@foreverdelayed.zzn.com, www.geocities.com/evencheapdreamsdontstoptherain/www/DOA.html

Centered around the Manic Street Preachers. But what a bore this would be if they were all we talked about. That is why there are interesting voices from the old Manics fan who didn't discover them until 2000 or the most knowledgeable non-Manics fan in Melbourne. This is a conceited attempt to try and voice some sort of manic sentiment in this land so far away from that little mining town in South Wales.

1. John Stamos Project - Take Your Best Shot
 16 song full length from 3 piece NY punk band. Think Love Songs era Queens meeting Ataris and you begin to get these guys. They do the fast, short, & angry song as perfectly as the mid tempo pogo starting broken hearted love song.

2. Fairmont - Pretending Greatness is Awaiting
 A 16 song CD taken from 1 acoustic and 1 electric recording session. This NJ band is a perfect blend of punk, emo, and indie rock. Electric stuff is reminiscent of Jawbreaker, Pixies, & Pavement while acoustic stuff is similar to Weakerthans, Dashboard Confessional, & Pedro The Lion. Amazing lyrics backed with huge emotion.

3. Young Hasselhoff - Get Dumped *Comes with a free 11x17 poster.
